Our Values

We are passionate about our strategic community leadership, transforming ordinary into extraordinary. We live it through our core values:

- Compassion – Caring for citizens of our communities
- Empowerment – Enabling others to succeed by leveraging our influence, support, and encouragement
- Innovation – Discovering, cultivating, and promoting new opportunities
- Integrity – Ensuring the highest ethical standards in all we do
- Quality – Demonstrating excellence
- Stewardship – Managing the assets and resources entrusted to us in a careful and responsible manner for the benefit of all we serve
- Inclusiveness – Embracing the perspectives and participation of our community in all we do

National Standards

The Community Foundation of Sarasota County has been recognized for having organizational and financial practices in accordance with the National Standards for U.S. Community Foundations.

Board of Directors

Distinguished leaders who represent the rich diversity of our community serve on our board of directors. Kathie Roberts, former Senior HR Executive for Federated Department Stores Inc., is our current board chair. Philip A. Delaney, Jr., who serves as Chief Executive Officer of Northern Trust Florida in Sarasota and Manatee Counties, is our immediate past board chair.
